If you are the surviving spouse of a deceased veteran with low income or overwhelmed with the high cost of medical care, such as paying for assisted living facilities, home care aids, adult daycare, or skilled nursing, the VA Survivors benefit could be the solution to help pay for this care or other needs.

There are three levels of VA Survivors Pensions:

Basic Pension—for surviving spouses with low income

Aid & Attendance (A&A) – for surviving spouses that require assistance with their activities of daily living

Housebound – for surviving spouses with a permanent disability that prevents them from leaving their home

You may be eligible if:

- the deceased veteran was discharged from military service under other than dishonorable conditions; AND
- the veteran served 90 days of active duty or more with at least 1 day during a war time period*; AND
- your annual household income and net worth meet certain limits set by law.

While an un-remarried spouse is eligible at any age, a child of a deceased wartime Veteran must be: under 18, OR under age 23 if attending a VA-approved school, OR permanently incapable of self-support due to a disability before age 18.

*To find the dates of service considered as war time periods, visit: www.va.gov/pension/wartime period. Veterans who enlisted after September 7, 1980 generally must have served at least 24 months of active duty OR the full period for which called or ordered to active duty.

PENSION RATES effective 12/1/2024	MAXIMUM MONTHLY BENEFIT	(MAPR) MAXIMUM ANNUAL INCOME
Basic Pension with no dependents*	$948.00	$11,380.00
With Housebound benefits with no dependents*	$1,159.00	$13,908.00
With Aid and Attendance with no dependents*	$1,515.00	$18,187.00
In Nursing Home receiving Medicaid benefits	$90.00	N/A

*Additional benefits are available for dependent children. Ask for details.

*OUT OF POCKET MEDICAL EXPENSES PAID BY THE HOUSEHOLD ARE USED TO REDUCE THE HOUSEHOLD INCOME. You may deduct only the amount that's above 5% of your MAPR amount . Please see the examples on page 2.

HOUSEHOLD NET WORTH LIMIT MUST BE UNDER $159,240.00

(as of 12/01/2023–changes annually) Net worth is the sum of household assets and annual income. It does NOT include a primary residence and lot under 2 acres, automobile, or personal effects. As of 10/18/2018 the VA instituted a "look back" period of 3 years. Any assets transferred to reduce net worth after this date must be reported and may prohibit qualifying for the pension benefit for up to 5 years.

DETERMINING THE MONTHLY BENEFIT AMOUNT:

The amount of the possible benefit can be determined by totaling the amount of monthly GROSS household income and then subtracting the monthly total of continuing out of pocket medical expenses which equals the countable income. The countable income is then subtracted from the maximum monthly income limit for the veteran's situation. (See the chart on page 1.) The examples below can help you to understand how the VA calculates the amount. All amounts are monthly figures.

The Pension Worksheet on page 3 can be used to determine the possible benefit.

1.PENSION EXAMPLE:

The surviving spouse is 81 years old. Her monthly income is $800 (GROSS) in Social Security (SS) benefits. She is still able to live alone in her home which is paid off. She has no savings or any other assets. $185.00 is withheld from her SS benefits for Medicare and she pays $75.00 per month for a supplemental health insurance.

Medical Expenses:		Income:		Possible Benefit:
Medicare Part B	$ 185.00	Social Security	$800.00	VA Income Limit	$948.00
Health insurance	75.00	Less med expenses	260.00	Less countable income	540.00
Total med exps	$260.00	Countable income	$540.00	VA benefit	$408.00

2. PENSION WITH AID AND ATTENDANCE EXAMPLE:

Surviving spouse is 70 years old. His monthly income consists of $825.00 (GROSS) in Railroad Retirement (RR) and $1,370.00 in State Teachers Retirement. His doctor stated that he could no longer live alone, and it was a medical necessity to move into an assisted living facility but did not need full nursing home care. The monthly cost of the assisted living facility is $3,500 per month, $185.00 is withheld from his RR for Medicare, and he pays $100 for supplemental health insurance.

Medical Expenses:		Income:		Possible Benefit:
Assisted Living	$3,500.00	RR	$ 825.00	VA Income Limit	$1,515.00
Medicare Part B	174.70	State Teachers	1,370.00	Because the claimant's income is
Health insurance	100.00	Total income	$2,195.00	less than his medical expense, his
Total med exps	$3,835.00	Less med exps	3,835.00	countable income is zero. He would
		Countable income	0.00	receive the full benefit $1,515.00.

3. NURSING HOME WITH MEDICAID EXAMPLE:

The widow in example #1 becomes ill and the doctors determine she must be placed into a nursing home. Medicaid begins to pay the cost of her care and she receives just a small portion of her Social Security benefit. The VA will reduce her monthly pension benefit to $90 per month which can be used for her personal needs such as clothing, haircuts, etc.

☐ Special Monthly Compensation (SMC) - Veterans and surviving spouses or parents who are eligible to receive VA compensation due to a service-related disability or death and require aid and attendance of another person to perform personal functions required in everyday living such as bathing, feeding, dressing, attending to the wants of nature, adjusting prosthetic devices, or protecting oneself from the hazards of the daily environment may be eligible for Special Monthly Compensation. A veteran or a deceased veteran's surviving spouse may also be eligible for Special Monthly Compensation based on being housebound (substantially confined to the immediate premises because of permanent disability). ☐ Special Monthly Pension (SMP) - Veterans and survivors who are eligible for Veteran's Pension and/or Survivors benefits and require the aid and attendance of another person in order to perform personal functions required in everyday living, such as bathing, feeding, dressing, attending to the wants of nature, adjusting prosthetic devices, or protecting them from the hazards of their daily environment, or are housebound (substantially confined to their immediate premises because of permanent disability), may be eligible for Special Monthly Pension (SMP).
